BIOS

Ron Smith has been a professional stage performer for over thirty years beginning in his home state of Georgia then making his way west to California and Nevada. Ron has performed as Charlie Cowell/Harold Hill in the 1st National Revival Tour of The Music Man and starred as Julian Marsh for a year and a half in 42nd Street throughout the US and Japan. His regional musical theatre credits include: Adam (7 Brides For 7 Brothers); Jud (Oklahoma); Jacob (Shenandoah); Moose (Crazy For You); Miles Gloriosus (A Funny Thing Happened On The Way To The Forum); and Caiaphas (Jesus Christ Superstar) to name a few. One of his greatest pleasures though is working with his beautiful and talented wife, Lisa.

Lisa Smith, originally from Delaware, moved to California to perform and tour with the well-known song & dance company, "The Young Americans." Following that, Lisa spent several years singing in clubs and performing in theatres throughout the Los Angeles/Hollywood area, worked as a Lead Singer/Dancer aboard Royal Caribbean's "Song of America" ship, and appeared as a Featured Soloist in two separate production shows in Tokyo, Japan. However, her favorite performing experience was while co-hosting the famous Wild Bill's Wild West Extravaganza Show in Buena Park, CA where she met and fell in love with her husband and soul-mate Ron (who happened to be playing the role of Wild Bill opposite her Miss Annie). Since relocating to Las Vegas with Ron, Lisa has enjoyed appearances at several well-known venues such as the Suncoast Hotel & Casino, South Point Event Center, Ritz-Carlton at Lake Las Vegas, the Bootlegger Bistro, the Stirling Club, Becker's Steakhouse, and the Starbright Theatre in Summerlin. In addition to performing with Ron, Lisa also performs regularly with the well-known tribute group "Shades of Sinatra," sings with up-and-coming all-girl jazz trio "Dangerous Curves," and appears occasionally with Las Vegas' favorite Vocal Jazz Quartet "Fifth Avenue."

RECENT CLIENT REVIEWS

“I contacted Lisa to see if she could provide some Broadway music for our fall Retired Officers Wives Club (ROWC) luncheon. What an amazing experience we had! She and her husband, Ron, presented a fantastic Broadway review with not only great music, but tied it together with interesting and fun stories. Not only were they amazing singers, but they were delightful entertainers. Most of these ladies have seen Broadway shows, cruise entertainment and shows here in Las Vegas, and they absolutely raved about Lisa and Ron. Many said it was the best program we’ve ever had. We will definitely invite them back in the future.”
